COUNTRY Soviet Zone of Germany REPORT NO. Military Information from Meissen CONFIDENTIAL EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & WFE) 25X1A PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & WFE) 25X1A REMARKS 11 Entern 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bolinitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had formerly housed the German II NV Mitz Arty En of the loth Arty Report of the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German II Arty Oben. Ban. 3. The cestern section of the installation was vecant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German II Arty Oben. Ban. 3. The cestern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulats with tank instgma. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billicting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstra and doesthestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the billicting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another sources. Gee 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div believed to be stationed in the billicting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another sources. Gee 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div believed to be stationed in the billicting area were completed by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another sources. Gee 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div believed to be stationed in the billicting area were sources.	}	4. 	Approved For Release 2001/03/05 : CIA-RDP82-00457R0062035550003 0
CONFIDENTIAL EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTE LETION TO SIA LIGHTAN DIFFARITY SOURCE I. DETWEEN 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Measson-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 02) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had formerly housed the German II hv Mts Arty En of the loth Arty Regre. 2. The couthern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cernan IV Arty Obsn.lm. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillary battalion prior to the wer. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentrics who wore red-bordered black openlets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet that repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstrea and Goethestrasse, about 1 hm north-north of the licises main relirond station. Two Tall tanks were being worked on in the yard,  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about to the proper in June and July 1950 according to another sources. See Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the bill state of 10 Goobs Tay 1910. The security of the North Tay 1910 in October 1910. The security of the North Tay 1910 in October 1910. The security of the North Tay 1910 in Oct			CLASSIFICATION SECRET—CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY
CONFIDENTIAL EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTE DATE OF	COUN	TRY_	•
EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTE ATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES 1 25X1A REMARKS	TOPIC)
ANTE OF CONTE DATE OF CONTE DATE OF CONTE DATE OF CONTE ASSOLUTE LENCLOSURES (No. a Type) SOURCE I. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meisson-Bohnitssch (N 52/F 09) was occurred by the rear dotail of a tank unit. section had formerly housed the German II hv Mtz Arty En of the 10th Arty Rept. 2. The conthern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the throops prordously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Oben.Bn. 3. The seatorn section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battelion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was quared by sentries who were red-bordered black epullate with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no notor traffic were observed in the billoting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Coethestrases, about 1 lm north-north Mei the Edissen main relived station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  SOURCE SAME Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about the troops quartered in the barracks installation in Figure 10 to the part of the point of the billeting area was a coupled by about the troop traint of the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. It is probable the throop training grounds are reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were reported to be compared to the troop training grounds are reported to be compared to the point of the October 1919. These units were reported to be compared to the October 1919. These units were reported to be compared to the October 1919. These units were report
DATE OBTAINED. DATE PREPARED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES 1 25X1A 25X1A REMARKS 2 Lation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N. 52/7 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had formerly housed the German II Hwitz Arty Bn of the both Arty Regro. 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops previously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben.Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battelion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentrics who were red-bordered black spullets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tenk unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet truk repair shop was located in the former Imperie factory on Hafenstras and Gesthestrasse, shout I be morth-orth 67 the locises main ruliroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by a bout 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 255 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div he between the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who lates also went to the troop training grounds. 14.  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were greatent to the State Tank Div in October 1919. These units were greatent to the State Tank Div in October 1919. These units were greatent to Director of Central incligence to the Archivator in the United of 10 October 1970 tien the Director of Central incligence to the Archivat on the United States. The States are propered to be occupied by components of the October 1970 tien the Director of Central incligence to the Archivat on the United	EVALU	JATIO	N F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A
DATE PREPARED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES 1 25X1A REMARKS 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1A REMARKS 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1A REMARKS 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1A REMARKS 3 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1A Lation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/7 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The bear section of the installation was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The bear section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This bearacks section formerly quartered the Cernan IV Arty Otem.Bu. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery bettellion prior to the war. 4. The bearacks installation in Zaschenderf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignts. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tenk unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soriet tank repair shop was located in the former imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goe thestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the McLissen main relirond station. Two Tilt tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. A comment. The northern section of the Dilleting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were present—the billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were present—the 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. 1. A  1. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were present—the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were present—the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were present—the 1950 comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th	DATE	OF C	ONTE
REMARKS 25X1A	DATE	OBTA
AGES ENCLOSURES (NO. & TOPE) SOURCE X 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bolmitssch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The barracks section had formerly housed the German II Hv Ntz Arty En of the Joth Arty Reggs section had formerly housed the German II Hv Ntz Arty En of the Joth Arty Reggs section had remerly housed the German II Hv Ntz Arty En of the Joth Arty Reggs section formerly quartered the German II Arty Obsn. Ha. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was quarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no notor traffic were observed in the billoting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth He the Liessen main rullroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 500 troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, premumbly at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable the throop quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the torop training grounds. 14.  Comment. The increase with the comment of 10 clober 1973 from the billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the Sth Tank Div in October 1949. These units were prepared. 15. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 15. Decement in Comment of 10 clober 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to t
Detween 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. 1A 1A 1A 2. The couthern section of the installation was vecent. Local residents said that the troops previously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cernan IV Arty Obsn.Ma. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black epsulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-enorth of the billeting area was occupied by about 1 to 10 the prior the detail and the billeting area was occupied by about 500 troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koemicsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were cervite who later also went to the troop training grounds. 1A 1A 1A 1B 1B 1B 1B 1B 1B 1B			τ 25Χ1Δ
Source 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meisson-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tenk unit. The barracks section had formerly housed the German II by Mtz Arty Bn of the Moth Arty Reco. section had formerly housed the German II by Mtz Arty Bn of the Moth Arty Reco. section had formerly housed the Hernan II by Mtz Arty Bn of the Moth Arty Reco. section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Obsn. Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalian prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet truk repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Geethestrasse, about 1 km north-north off the Mciessen main reilroad station. Two T3h tanks were being worked on in the yard,  6X1A  Comment. Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 255 subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Dirty believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koemigsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 60 Comment. The billeting area was reported to be compiled by components of the 9th Tank Dirty McOthor 1919. These units were "previous reports. See This Coursent is knoby regarded to Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See The Coursent is knoby regarded to Comment from previous reports. See
Source 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had formerly housed the German II By Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reciss section had formerly housed the German II By Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reciss section had formerly housed the German II By Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reciss section had formerly quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Obsn. En. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tink repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Geothestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Michael September 1914 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6. A Soviet tink repair shop was located in the places main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6. A Soviet tink repair shop was located in the places main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6. A Soviet tink repair shop was located in the places main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6. A Soviet tink repair shop was located in the places of the pair tank D4 yard.  6. A Soviet tink repair shop was located in July 1950 were recruits who later also were to the troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 6. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be coupled by components of the 9th Tank D4 yard with believed	REMAI	RKS_	RETURN TO SIA
1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. 1. Section had formerly housed the German II Nv Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.Rm. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were redberdered black epsulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billoting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperie factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main reliroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 255 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billoting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 6.11 A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were reparent. 1. A the follower the knowly regarded to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were reparent. 1. A the follower the knowly regarded to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919 into the Director of Cerbsi intolligate to the Archivist of the United Savasacana. 1. Decement 100. 1.		-	TIMPADY
1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The barracks section had formerly housed the German II NV Mtz Arty En of the LOth Arty Reggs. * 2. The couthern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.En. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black epoulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the instal lation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former imperic factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6. Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 1000 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950. 6. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were symment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were symment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were symment. See			MARTINE T
1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Obsn.Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battellion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black epculets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former imperic factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6X1A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about coo troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Keenigsbrucek troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950, were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. 1A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— The deument is theoby regarded to Controllation in accordance with the lefter of 10 October 1979 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United Seatshardon. SEMET-CONTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE
1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Obsn.Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battellion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black epculets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former imperic factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6X1A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about coo troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Keenigsbrucek troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950, were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. 1A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— The deument is theoby regarded to Controllation in accordance with the lefter of 10 October 1979 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United Seatshardon. SEMET-CONTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE ACCOUNTROLATE
1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn. En. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth well the Meissen main railroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See See Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 61. The Connent. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were reparent—19 still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. 62. The Connent. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 63. The Connent. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See		CE
1A latter in Reissen-Bonnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a The barracks section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reg., * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore red-bordered black spaulats with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north off the keissen main railroad station. Two T3h tanks were being worked on in the yard.  600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 61A  61A  61A  61B Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were programmably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. 61A  61B Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 61B Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See	^	1.	Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks install-section had formerly housed the German II hw hitz arty En of the hoth arty Regree 2. The couthern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.En. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. In the barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentrics who wore red-bordered black epsulets with tank instanta. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-northwell the leissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 500 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25. Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koemigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troop quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were proparent— The decreant is kneedy regreted to Convents. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This decreant is kneedy regreted to Convents incligence to the Archivist of the United Suspectation. SERVET-CONTROLAGE.	1 A		ration in meissen-Bonnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbordered black epaulets with tank insignta. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the keissen main railroad station. Two T3k tanks were being worked on in the yard,  XIA         	IA		section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty Bn of the 40th Arty Reg. *
quartered the Cernan IV Arty Obsn.Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battelion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbordered black epaulets with tank insignta. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the keissen main railroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 255 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 1A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent—1950, presumably at the Koenigsbruck troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent—1950, and the property of Contract intolligence to the Archivist of the United Scales care. September 1950. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See Document To October 1972 from the Director of Central intolligence to the Archivist of the United Scales care.		2。	The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that
3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were redbordered black epsulets with tank instgnia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  *       *			the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formering
4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore red- bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the instal lation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T3h tanks were being worked on in the yard.  *       		3.
lation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T3h tanks were being worked on in the yard.  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25) Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent— 1A  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is hereby regarded to Confident and the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See			built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war.
A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 000 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25. Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— The document of the tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is known that the tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is known to the tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See		4.	The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore red-
A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperie factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  (X1A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See 255 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. (A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were progrently at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. (COMPIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 10 October 1972 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the SEMET-CONTROL/US OFFICIAL CONTROL/US OFFICIAL			lation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two crows of six or seven soldiers and
Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25) Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were prearent. It still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. A			no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area. **
 Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25) Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrucck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent— In still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. A  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See Document to Constitute the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. September 1970 of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the September 200 of Table 1973 from the September 1970 of Table 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the September 200 of Table 1973 from the September 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the September 200 of Table 1973 from the September 200 of Table 200 of T		5。	A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras
Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were present— The 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were present— The 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were present— The 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were present— The following grounds on 22 September 1950. A Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This decurrent is hereby regarded to CONFIDERWAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Contract. SECRET-CONTROL/US OFFICIAL LIMIT.			Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard, ***
Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were proparent— It still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. A  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See Decument No. No Change In Class. No Change In Class I	X1A	*	Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about
1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— The 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— In still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is known the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the Control of Central intelligence to the Central			oco droops in dule and duly 1950 according to another source See the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds.  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent— 1 still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is knowly regarded to Consider that in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United Stalescation. SECRET—CONTROL/US OFFICIAL TOWN.			Stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the rost on 22 Sentember
This desureant is hereby regarded to CONFIDER HAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Archivist of the United States of the troop training grounds. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were appearent. The still at the troop training grounds. These units were appearent. These units were appearent. The desureant is hereby regarded to CONFIDER HAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intolligence to the Archivist of the United States Control US OFFICE AND 1997.			the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recomits the
the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were prearent— ly still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. A Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is hereby regarded to CONFIDER AL in accordance with the letter of 10 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Correct SECRET—CONTROL/US OFFICEAL TANK	/ 4 A		later also went to the troop training grounds.
This degreent is hereby regarded to CONFIDER AL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intolligence to the Archivist of the United States of Tours of Control Us OFFICIAL INSTITUTE SECRET CONTROL US OFFICIAL INSTITUTE.	ιA		the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent.
This decureant is hereby regarded to CONFIDER LAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States CATION SECRET CONTROL/US OF FICTAL INVITAGE SECRET CON			IV still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950.
CONFIDER IAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intolligence to the Archivist of the United States Carron. SECRET—CONTROL/US OF ICIALS INVITED IN SECRET—CONTROL/US OF ICIALS IN SECRET.	1A		such to mount from previous reports. See
CONFIDER IAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intolligence to the Archivist of the United States Carron. SEONET—CONTROL/US OFFICIAL STANDS
CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Carross SECRET CONTROL US OF FICTIAL TRADE
Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States SECRET-CONTROL US OF TOTAL TOTAL STATES		This
Archivist of the United States SECRET-CONTROL/US OF TITLE TO THE SECRET		CON	Well the Change In Class.
Next Review Date: 2008 By: By: By: By: By: By: By: By:		CON	WEIDER HAL in accordance with the or of 18 October 1973 from the
		CCN lette Dire Arch	No Change in Class. SECHET—CONTROL/US OF FICTURE IN CONTROL/US OF FICTURE